Overheard at BPL...

On Tuesday "the George Reynolds Branch was visited by some very special people: George Reynolds' niece and nephew, Judith Mangus and Richard Reynolds Hile. They had a grand time looking at the display case full of mementos and telling the staff stories about Uncle George. They also graciously posed for a picture with him."

Children's Summer Reading Program wraps up

Come to the Summer Festival Aug. 18

BPL's Youth Services has had a wonderfully busy summer. We featured some dynamite authors, singer/songwriters and many more events with the summer reading program for children. (The photo at left is of children enjoying singer Bill Harley at Boulder Reservoir.) We are in the beginning stages of gathering statistics, but the children and families in our community have read an amazing number of minutes. We have definitely had a record-breaking summer!

Don’t forget the Library Summer Festival coming up Sunday, Aug. 18, from 2-5 p.m. Food, magic, performers and fun will abound and everyone is welcome! (*Enjoy the children’s book sale in the Children’s Library that same afternoon - details below).

The teens have been enjoying Teen Film Nexus and have the grand finale coming up on July 30 with a screening of "Edward Scissorhands" starring Johnny Depp.

Information: Children and Youth Services, 303-441-3099.

Recommended Read

Rage Against the Dying

by Becky Masterman

"Middle-aged ex-FBI agent Brigid Quinn is haunted by an unsolved case from her career - that of the Route 66 Killer, a serial killer who murdered her undercover protégé and then disappeared. When a man confesses and leads investigators to bodies that have been..."
missing for years, Brigid pushes her way back into action. But is the man really the killer? And what really happened to Jessica all those years ago? Can Brigid ever stop being an FBI agent long enough to be happy in her new life?

This tightly woven mystery with a seriously flawed narrator is especially interesting because much of the action central to the plot has already happened. Brigid's voice is smart and sassy without falling prey to any stereotypes, and the Tucson landscape is as much a character as anyone else. I can't wait to see what Masterson writes next."

-Hannah, George Reynolds Branch
