Upcoming BPL Holiday Closures
February 20 - Presidents' Day

Library Commission tours area libraries
The Boulder Public Library Commission and senior staff will tour five public libraries on Saturday, January 28, to learn about recent innovations in children's and teen areas at other local libraries. As a result of the success of Boulder's 2011 ballot issue 2A, Boulder Public Library will receive funds to renovate the children's and teen areas of the Main Library. Read more

Children's Book Sale
February 12-14, Main Library, Children's Library

Main Library is hosting a GIANT children's books and materials sale! Prices for books are 25 cents each or 5 for $1; talking books are $1; and CDs and VHS tapes are 25 cents each or 5 for $1. Read More

Recommended Reads
Shanghai Girls, by Lisa See
An enthralling account of the older of two young, well-to-do Shanghaiese sisters and their trials during the onset of World War II. As they flee Shanghai from the Japanese invasion, they face devastating loss and the collapse of all they have known.

Subscribe to our email list
From A(phrodite) to Z(eus): An Introduction to Ancient Greek Religion

Wednesday, February 1, 7 p.m, Canyon Theater

CU professor Lauri Reitzammer presents "From A(phrodite) to Z(eus): An Introduction to Ancient Greek Religion" on Wednesday, February 1, from 7 to 8:15 p.m. in the Canyon Theater at the Main Library. Read more

Kaplan ACT/SAT Practice Test

Saturday, February 4, Noon, Main Library, Boulder Creek Room

Practice your test-taking skills in realistic test conditions. Experience each ACT and SAT section. Receive a detailed analysis of your performance on each test and improve your score with exclusive strategies from Kaplan Test Prep. To register in advance, please call 1-800-KAP-TEST or visit kaptest.com/practicetest.

Dance Bridge presents 'Dancing in the Light'

Saturday, February 11, 2-3 p.m. in the Canyon Theater

In honor of Black History Month, Dance Bridge screens the film "Dancing in the Light." Six historic works by African American choreographers, filmed by the American Dance Festival to preserve and celebrate the black tradition in modern dance, are collected for a one-hour historical performance program. Read more

Lincoln Comes Alive

Sunday, February 5, 3-4 p.m., Meadows Branch Library
The person and character of the 16th president comes alive with a wonderful presentation by John Voehl, a lifetime member of the Association of Lincoln Presenters. Read more