Banned Books Week - celebrate your right to read!

This is Banned Books Week, and it's all about you: your taste, your interests, your right to read whatever you like. Let Boulder Public Library staff help you celebrate with personalized book suggestions, courtesy of the You're enTitled! program. Because you're entitled to great reads, whatever your taste.

“You’re EnTitled” to book suggestions just for you

Many of our events are generously co-sponsored by the Boulder Library Foundation.
"This isn't my usual choice in genre but I read it for book club. I was glad I got through it. Very interesting though it was difficult to read. The violence and atrocities in the POW camps were just heartbreaking."
--Heather, Circulation

Reveille 3 (Andrews Sisters Style Trio) concert

Letters From Home

October 14, 4:00-5:00 p.m.
Main Library, Canyon Theater

Passionately inspired by the Swing Era, Denver-based Reveille 3 plays tribute to the music of the Andrews Sisters. Told through letters, inspired by personal writings during WWII, "Letters from Home" is an entertaining reflection back to a time of honor, sacrifice and pride for the American people.
